OUR AGENTS CORRUPT.—We have just heard of a thieving outrage committed on the night of the 1st of December last, by some of the men attached to Loomis' battery. As the train was passing down Brook's Station, in the night, some twelve miles below the city, it was stopped and Mr.
George N. Sanders, a storekeeper, was aroused. Some fifteen or eighteen men of the battery went into the store and asked to warm. After some time had elapsed, one of the party bought five cents worth of cigars, and asked for the lighted candle to light his cigar. He blew the light out, and the whole gang commenced removing the contents of the store. They carried out nearly every article, besides a trunk belonging to a well-known citizen of Lexington. This trunk contained some clothing, a few letters, and a fine box containing the equipment of a Transat's five inch pistol.
These things must be kept. There must be some remedy for such evils, and some return for such losses as are thus sustained by any citizen.

Col. Boone's Regiment.—The election took place yesterday in Col. Boone's regiment. Our gallant cousin was, of course, chosen, and we are glad to see and know that the grandson of Daniel Boone leads Kentuckians for Kentucky. Mr. Johnston, commonly known as "Bliss" Johnston, a military officer of some distinction, is chosen Lieut. Colonel.

John Gault is the Major of the regiment, and a truer and better man can't be found.
This regiment will achieve distinction if it can be found at the point of the bayonet.
They only want an opportunity to advance, and are as little about Minnie rides and such "weak line of the enemy" as conceivable. Their motto is "Forward, March."

Col. Johnson, of Albany, is at Washington, as the leading Commissioner to the World's Fair, and it is expected that Congress will appropriate $25,000 to defray the necessary expenses. We think the Government had better use its money to pay its debts, and prepare to visit John Bull's exhibition when it is more likely we should be treated civilly.

A Richmond paper of the 24th says that both Jeff. Davis and Governor Lett, gave receptions on New Year's day. That of the former took place at 12 o'clock, and lasted three hours. Thousands of visitors were in attendance, all of whom shook hands with his "Excellency."

Jeff. Davis' bogus Confederacy has already acknowledged itself bankrupt. The Secretary of Treasury has informed Tennessee that the "Government" cannot pay the sum that State has expended for the war. It is rather questionable whether Tennessee herself can pay the amount.

A Galveston letter to the Richmond Dispatch, dated Dec. 7, says that the Governor has forbidden the removal of cotton from the plantations, thus disappointing those persons who were anxious to ship their crops to Matamoros.

There is at Barnum's, in New York, a new beauty in the shape of a young lady who has fallen irresistibly into fast—said to weigh 600 pounds. She must, as the painters say, fill the eye.

So far from that terrible distress and sorrow that was predicted, the N. Y.
Sunday Times says the demands made upon the benevolent societies have not as yet reached the aggregate of former years.

The Richmond correspondent of the New Orleans Delta says that when Col.
Mulligan surrendered Lexington to Price, the latter had only 2,000 percussion caps in his whole command.

The REBELMAN.—We received by mail yesterday a new paper, bearing the above title, published at Gallatin, Ky., by the Marion Rife Zouaves, of this city. It is a spicy little paper, and will be a welcome companion. We send the following items from the first number, dated January 4th:

Scouting Party.—Col. Hampton and Captain Bartram, with some fifty mounted men, returned yesterday morning from an excursion up Big Sandy. They passed up East Fork, by the Falls of Blain, and on to Louis. They brought in three prisoners: William McKee, John and James Burke.
The two latter were no doubt spies from Prestonsburg. The first named has been very active in this rebellion, and a man of desperate character.

Hunt for Big Sandy.—It is gratifying to see the boys from Big Sandy looking in to the standard of their country. Col.
Moore's regiment will soon be filled. Our boys want but little training, as they have been accustomed to the use of the rifle, and are eager to try their arms at the rebels and traitors who now infest our valleys.

Bad News.—It is truly astonishing that our government, both State and Federal, will throw men into the field with such poor excuses to do fighting with. The guns of Col. D. W. Lilly's regiment is furnished with are really not fit to do good service with, and this regiment is not the only one that is poorly armed by a good deal. We have Belgian cannon.

Kentucky conscripted for a long time neutral ground, and even now has more troops in the rebel than in the Union army.
N. Y. Tribune.

The above is a fair specimen of an absolute lie, for it is, and the writer knew it to be a lie when he penned it.

Letter from Edmonson County.

REBEL CAMP AT CORNELIUS SPRINGS—STATE OF AFFAIRS IN THAT REGION.

Brownsville, Ky., January 6, 1862.

Editors Democrat—Gentlemen: Thinking that a few items so near the Southern Confed might prove interesting to your numerous readers, I have come to the conclusion to give you a "pen and ink sketch" of the naked facts that have occurred in the last few days, and what is likely to occur in future. There are some fifteen hundred rebel soldiers encamped about seven miles south of this place, at the Cornelian springs, and are committing all kinds of depredations on the loyal citizens south of Green river. They have gone so far as to arrest Union men and take them to Bowling-green, and make them work on the fortifications, which are represented by every one that goes there to be very strong.

Last Saturday, about four hundred of them came to this place and attempted to cross the river, but were foiled in the attempt, by a slight obstacle on the other side in the shape of a log pile, and the rebel last boys of the Home Guard. After the rebels had two men wounded, they retreated to the music from a disheveled drum.

Their intention was to have crossed the river and have gone to an all spring owned by J. O. Otter, the best of the Otter & Allen, of your city, and establish an encampment there to obtain the oil, which runs from seven to ten gallons per day. The above article they are really in need of, there is no telling at what time they will attack the Home Guard again.
Should they bring artillery along with them they may succeed in crossing. Would it not be well for Gen. Beall to send a regiment here? The rebels could not be beaten upon Captain Baker and his men.
They have felled the trees for thirty miles in each direction from this place at the crossings. There has been a great deal of rain in this vicinity, late in the winter and of banks. This will prove a serious obstacle to the rebels, as there are no boats here to cross in.

Pas Exposed.

(Special to the St. Louis Republic.)

GAIRO, January 7.

The gunboats Essex, Lexington and Ty-lor, which went down on a reconnaissance to Columbus this morning, returned at 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

They approached within two miles of Columbus and within range of their guns.

Six miles above Columbus they discovered the small rebel steamer Waterwitch, mounting two guns, lying in the river. It at once started on under full steam for Columbus, and reported the approach of the gun-boats, after which it returned within sight, keeping, however, out of range. A few shots were fired at it from the Essex, but they fell short.

The chain stretched across the river at Columbus is controlled by a steam engine on the Kentucky shore, which tightens or loosens it at pleasure. To the bottom of the chain is attached three large torpedoes, intended to explode in connection with the wheel of a boat. All the rebel vessels, with the exception of the Waterwitch, are below the chain, the latter being the only one that can pass over it, and consequently remains above to reconnoitre. When the Federal gunboats approached Columbus they could see plainly the batteries at that place. While the artillery stood at their guns, ready to fire, and the whole Confederate force were under arms. Two cavalry companies, from Bird's point, went down by land along with the three gunboats; it being known that a rebel force of cavalry was encamped near the mouth of the river, being danger of their cutting the Union detachment off, infantry were sent down subsequently to support the latter.

A NEW REMEDY FOR CHILLS.—The Mobile Register gives the following incident as having happened to a soldier in a Mississippi regiment, at Pensacola, who went to his tent and blankets with an attack of the ague:

A bottle of hot water to his feet not being convenient, some of his comrades went out and picked up some of the numerous shells Colonel Brown sent over during the battlement, heated it at the fire, and put it to bed with the sick man's feet. In a few minutes the shell had lost its cap, but had not exploded. The heat of the camp fire accomplished what Lincoln's pyrotechny had failed in; an explosion. The tent was blown to pieces, and some of the men killed and greatly astonished. We are happy to learn that no one was killed by the mishap.

THE NASHVILLE AGONY AT SEA.—The Nashville, I hear, either has sailed, or is on the point of sailing, from Southampton.
May the gallant Pegasus have a good deliverance from the Federal cruiser said to be hunting for him, and may the Pegasus be carried away the same manner as the one from Southampton that he brought in I should not like to bet; or that the Nashville, as respects trial and hot hammer, is not over-calculated to brave the Atlantic and the enemy than she was when she burned the Harvey Birch.

A Dublin paper, commenting on the decease of Prince Albert says: "When it is known that one of the last suggestions of the Prince Consort was that gentleness and kindness should mark the demeanor of England to a kindred people, and that increased by the passions of a civil war, it will enhance the love of the American people for the Queen, deepen their sorrow for the loss of the Prince, and strengthen the edge of their fraternal hostility to England."
